Elo may sublicense the rights granted to it hereunder to a subcontractor or other third parties for use in similar services or to Elo customers in accordance with Applicable Law and the terms of the Agreement. To the extent required by this Section, Customer will obtain any required consents of Account Users or End Customers to permit Elo’s use of such information.

3. Customer Obligations.

(a) General. The Customer is responsible and liable for all uses of the Service and Documentation resulting from access provided by Customer, its End Customers, or their agents, subcontractors, consultants, or employees directly or indirectly, whether such access or use is permitted by or in violation of the Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer is responsible for all of acts and omissions including any act or omission by Customer or its agents, subcontractors, consultants, employees, or End Customers directly or indirectly, that would constitute a breach of the Agreement. Customer’s responsibilities include, among other things, immediately notifying Elo if there is any change regarding the information provided as part of the Agreement.

(b) Customer’s Acts or Omissions. If Elo’s performance of its obligations under the Agreement is prevented or delayed by any act or omission of the Customer, End Customer, or their agents, subcontractors, consultants, or employees, Elo shall not be deemed in breach of its obligations under the Agreement or otherwise liable for any costs, charges, or losses sustained or incurred by Customer or any End Customer, in each case, to the extent arising directly or indirectly from such prevention or delay.

(c) In addition to the Elo requirements, Customer may establish Customer’s own rules for Account Users’ access and use of the Service. Any such rules will only affect the relationship between Customer and Customer’s Account Users and must be at least as restrictive as the terms of the Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, Customer is responsible for determining and obtaining any permissions from Account Users necessary to enable Customer to perform the administrative functions available through the Administrator Account and enforce any applicable rules. Further, Customer will prevent unauthorized use of Customer's Administrator Account, and will immediately notify Elo of any unauthorized use of or access to the Service of which Customer becomes aware.

Customer will be solely responsible for ensuring that Customer has designated appropriate and necessary individuals as Administrators and for removing Account privileges from individuals who no longer require them. CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IF NO ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATOR IS ABLE OR WILLING TO FULFILL SUCH FUNCTION AND/OR CUSTOMER OTHERWISE FAILS TO MAINTAIN CONTROL OF THE ADMINISTRATOR ACCOUNT(S), CUSTOMER MAY BE UNABLE TO ACCESS OR CONTROL THE ACCOUNT OR TO BENEFIT FROM THE SERVICE, AND CUSTOMER SHALL BE SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY RESULTING LOSSES, COSTS, DAMAGES, AND EXPENSES.

4. Changes to Service. Elo reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change any aspect of the Service or its performance that Elo deems necessary or useful on reasonable notice provided to Customer, via written notice, email, notice in the Portal, or notice at www.elotouch.com, provided that such changes do not detrimentally affect Customer's use of the Service in a material way. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party may disclose Confidential Information to the limited extent required: (i) in order to comply with the order of a court or other governmental body, or as otherwise necessary to comply with Applicable Law, provided that the Party making the disclosure pursuant to the order shall first have given written notice to the other Party(s) and made a reasonable effort to obtain a protective order; or (ii) to establish a Party's rights under the Agreement, including to make required court filings. On the expiration or termination of the Agreement, the receiving Party shall promptly return to the disclosing Party all copies, whether in written, electronic, or other form or media, of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information, or destroy all such copies and certify in writing to the disclosing Party that such Confidential Information has been destroyed. Each Party's obligations of non-disclosure with regard to Confidential Information are effective as of the Effective Date and will expire three years from the date first disclosed to the receiving Party; provided, however, with respect to any Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret (as determined under Applicable Law), such obligations of non-disclosure will survive the termination or expiration of the Agreement for as long as such Confidential Information remains subject to trade secret protection under Applicable Law.

(b) Service Renewal. Except as otherwise provided in the Purchase Order(s), Customer's and End Customer's access to and right to use the Service will cease at the end of the applicable Subscription Term unless the Parties agree to renew the Service for an additional period and Customer pays the applicable Fees to continue its use of such Service prior to the expiration of such Subscription Term. Following expiration of a Subscription Term, the Agreement itself will not automatically terminate unless otherwise terminated by either Party in accordance with this Section 12 or as otherwise provided herein.

(c) Termination. Customer may suspend Customer's account or any End Customer's account by contacting Elo, provided that in no circumstances will Customer be entitled to any refund of Fees paid or any credit against Fees that are due to Elo as of the date of such termination, or for the remainder of any Subscription Term. Elo may terminate the Agreement, without cause or reason, upon no less than fifteen (15) days' prior written notice to Customer, so long as all Subscription Terms will have expired or terminated by the proposed termination date. In addition, any Party may terminate the Agreement in the event another Party breaches or defaults any material term of the Agreement and fails to remedy such breach or default within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach or default from the non-breaching or non-defaulting Party. If any End Customer violates the Acceptable Use Policy, Elo may immediately suspend the Service and/or such End Customer's access to the Service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party may terminate the Agreement immediately in the event of a material breach by another Party of its obligations under Sections 7 or 8. If Customer terminates the Agreement due to a breach by Elo hereunder, Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, and the entire liability of Elo for such breach, will be a refund of Fees prepaid paid by Customer.

(e) Survival. The termination of the Agreement will, as of the effective date of such termination, terminate Customer's and its End Customers' access to the Service and all other rights granted to Customer hereunder; provided, however, that any termination is without prejudice to the enforcement of any undischarged obligations existing at the time of termination. The following provisions of the Agreement will survive the termination of the Agreement: Sections 2, 6-8, 11-12, and 14.

13. Miscellaneous.

(a) Entire Agreement. The Agreement, together with any other documents incorporated herein by reference, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of the Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, and representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. (d) Amendment and Modification; Waiver. No amendment to or modification of the Agreement is effective unless it is in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each Party. No waiver by any Party of any of the provisions hereof will be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the Party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in the Agreement, (i) no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any rights, remedy, power, or privilege arising from the Agreement will operate or be construed as a waiver thereof, and (ii) no single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.

(e) Severability. If any provision of the Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of the Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify the Agreement so as to effect their original intent as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

(f) Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. The Agreement is governed by and is made under the laws of the State of Texas, U.S.A. rules of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party may seek preliminary judicial relief (such as a preliminary injunction) from the state and federal courts located in any competent jurisdiction if, in such Party’s judgment, such action is necessary to avoid irreparable damage, and such courts will have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over all matters relating to such preliminary relief.

(g) Assignment. The Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Customer may not transfer or assign its interests in the Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of Elo, which consent shall be in Elo’s sole and absolute discretion to grant. Elo has the right to assign and subcontract its interests in and obligations under the Agreement and Customer specifically acknowledges and agrees that Elo may transfer or assign its interests in the to the purchaser of all or substantially all of the capital stock, assets, or business of Elo, or to any other third party (the “Assignee”), without the consent of Customer, provided that such Assignee assumes all of Elo’s obligations under the Agreement.

Each Party acknowledges and agrees that a breach or threatened breach by such Party of any of its obligations under Section 7 or 8 would cause the other Party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that, in the event of such breach or threatened breach, the other Party will be entitled to equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from any court, without any requirement to post a bond or other security, or to prove actual damages or that monetary damages are not an adequate remedy. Such remedies are not exclusive and are in addition to all other remedies that may be available at law, in equity, or otherwise.
